PRICE FIVE CENTS

College To Be Honored By N.C.W.A.C.

Gettysburg College has been selected by the awards committee of the National Civil War Centennial Commission to receive its certificate of distinction "for extraordinary contribution to the study of Civil War history." Dr. James I. Robertson Jr., executive director of the commission, announced today.

The commission's choice of the college was based on its appreciation of the two Civil War programs sponsored annually on the campus. These two programs, which have been offered each year since 1957 in August and November respectively, are the direct responsibility of the department of history, Dr. Robert L. Bloom, chairman. They have drawn to the campus nationally known authorities and authors of Civil War history, as well as a large audience from all over the United States.

"Allow me to extend my own heartiest and personal congratulations for a recognition well deserved," Robertson wrote to Dr. Bloom.

Plans for the summer program for 1962 are well underway, Dr. Bloom said, and will be announced at a later date.

A. A. KELLER PASSES AWAY THIS MORNING

Albert A. Keller, 76, died at 9:45 o'clock this morning at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Keller, R. 6. He had been in declining health for four years. Complications was given as the cause of death.

Mr. Keller was born in Moorefield, W. Va., and came to Adams County 38 years ago. He had been a farmer all his life. He was a member of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church and the local Eagles lodge. His wife, the former Emma K. Martin, died in 1926.

The deceased is survived by the following children:

Joseph C. Keller, Mrs. Wilbur Redding and Robert A. Keller, all of R. 6; Ludwig L. Keller and Mrs. Harry Zimmerman, both of R. 5; Mrs. Calvin Biesecker, Hanover, and Mrs. Elmer Cromwell, Fairfield; 36 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; one brother, William Keller, Fisher, W. Va., and one sister, Mrs. Mary Hutter, Moorefield, W. Va.

Funeral services will be held Monday morning, meeting at Bender's Funeral Home at 9:15 o'clock followed by a Requiem Mass at 10 o'clock in St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church with Rev. Fr. Joseph Kealy, pastor of the church, officiating.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday evening from 7 until 9 o'clock. The Rosary will be recited at 8 o'clock.

CHARGED BY BARTENDER

Arvey Kraglow May, 35, Fairfield R. 1, was placed in the county jail Thursday night on a disorderly conduct charge brought against him before Justice of the Peace Roger Myers, Fairfield R. D., by Eugene Shindler, bartender at the Silver Dollar. Justice Myers said May was later released on bail for a hearing Monday evening before the justice.

Justice Myers also announced disposition of a number of other cases before him. Francis Topper, Ottanta R. 1, and Monique Polk, Blue Ridge Summit, each paid fines of $10 and costs on charges brought against them by state police for driving their vehicles without current inspection stickers on them.

Joan L. Becker, York, paid a fine of $15 and costs on a charge of driving too fast for conditions brought by State Police following an accident in which her vehicle struck the rear of a car stopped for a school bus.

Ten-day notices were sent by the justice to Jacob H. Snyder, Gettysburg, charged by State Police with driving a truck faster than the 40-mile limit; Clifford E. Freshman, Waynesboro, speeding; and James C. McDaniel, Ottanta, failing to yield the right of way.

LICENSED TO WED

Edwin Clayton Ricketts, Keymar, Md., and Victoria Virginia Six, Taneytown, have secured a marriage license in Frederick.

Destroyer Noa Is Marked Ship

MAYPORT, Fla. (AP) — The U.S. Navy destroyer Noa came home a marked ship.

On the deck in white paint was a large circle outlining a "7," marking the spot where astronaut John H. Glenn Jr.'s Friendship 7 space capsule set down after his orbital flight Tuesday.

Also marked in white paint were the five footsteps Glenn took on the deck.

A large crowd greeted the recovery ship when it pulled into Mayport Naval Station Thursday night.

The skipper, Cmdr. John D. Exum of Jacksonville Beach, was presented with a gold plated baseball glove mounted on a plaque symbolizing the Noa as the ship that "fielded" the capsule.

RUFFIN STORY RECOUNTED TO ROUND TABLE

Edmund Ruffin, credited with being one of the men most responsible for the Civil War, "would undoubtedly be in the Hall of Fame for his agricultural work had not been so intimately connected with the starting of the war," John H. Knickerbocker of the Gettysburg College Civil War Institute told the local Civil War Round Table Thursday evening at a meeting in the institute.

Knickerbocker told the group "every time you put lime on your lawn you are following the agricultural principles laid down by Edmund Ruffin."

Ruffin's work on "Calcareous Manures" written in 1834 was reprinted in 1961 by the Harvard University Press as a pioneer book on modern farming in the United States. Ruffin wrote numerous volumes, pamphlets, magazine articles and letters of his findings in agriculture. He conducted experimental plots on his plantations and kept minute records of his findings, repeating experiments time and time again in the most modern scientific method before publishing his findings.

OFTEN DISCOURAGED

A veteran of the War of 1812, he wrote his first essay on agriculture in 1818. He was the first to experiment with use of lime to change acid conditions in the soil, the first to try and recommend crop rotation, and was a pioneer in use of drainage.

He was a member of the first Virginia Board of Agriculture and helped South Carolina promote its agriculture.

Knickerbocker noted that Ruffin's interest in agriculture led him sometimes to despair. He found farmers disinclined to "learn farming from books," and most ignored his findings.

AROUSED SOUTH

Ruffin's skill as an agriculturist was attested by a Union soldier stationed at Ruffin's "Marl."

2 COUPLES LICENSED

Marriage licenses have been issued at the court house to two couples:

Henry Eugene Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Moore, Gettysburg R. 4, and Roberta Ann Mrs. Joseph H. Leister, Emmitsburg R. 3.

Russell Albert Norgan Jr., son of Mrs. Carrie P. Norgan, Gettysburg R. 6, and the late Russell A. Norgan, and Phyllis Ann Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Miller, Gettysburg R. 1.

Geneva Sessions' Success Dims As Premier Insists On Summit Meeting In March

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP) — A tough new message from Premier Khrushchev, insisting that President Kennedy agree to a March summit meeting, chilled U.S. hopes today for any kind of successful negotiations with the Soviet Union at the forthcoming Geneva conference.

The letter, delivered to the State Department Thursday, also raised grave suspicion among officials here that Khrushchev is trying to use the approaching disarmament conference as a device to prevent Kennedy from ordering a new series of atmospheric nuclear tests. Officials judged the 20-page message to be loaded with propaganda.

CONSULT ALLIES

The State Department forwarded an English translation of the letter to the White House late Thursday afternoon, a little more than two hours after Kennedy left for Florida. Presumably, his special assistant, McGeorge Bundy,

JAYCEES NAME RICHARD GUISE AS PRESIDENT

D. Richard Guise, a past chairman of the board of directors of the Jaycees and a former vice president, was elected president of the Gettysburg Junior Chamber of Commerce at its meeting Thursday evening in the Western Maryland Railway station.

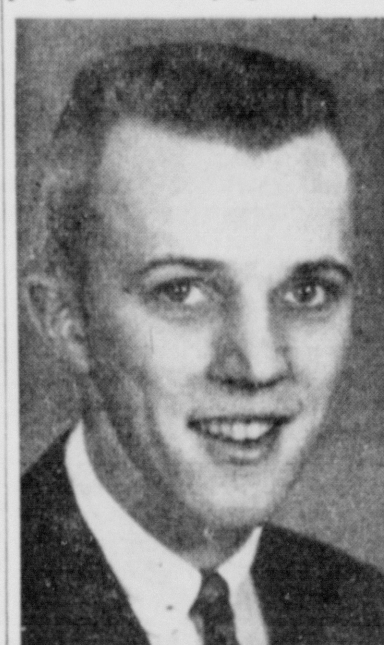

He will succeed Robert Weiland with the installation ceremony to be held "about the middle of March." The organization begins its new year as of April 1.

Other officers named Thursday were: Donald Becker, chairman of the board and state director; Thomas Piper, internal vice president; Barton Hoppe, external vice president; John W. Basehore, secretary, and John Guise, treasurer.

NAMED TO BOARD

Named as board members were Harry Spangler, James Krum, Thomas Metz, Charles Angstadt and Past President Weiland.

The Jaycees set July 1 as the "climax" for "Campaign Gettysburg" and will urge those participating in the campaign to seek to complete the work on the front of their buildings by that date so the town will have its new appearance by the 99th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg.

Reports showed that Rea and Derick, Pitzer's Men's Store and Britcher and Bender signed as participants during the week thus bringing to 94 the number of merchants and owners who have signed out of 110 in the central portion of the town.

3 NEW MEMBERS

The reports showed the weekly contest being held as part of the campaign "is most successful."

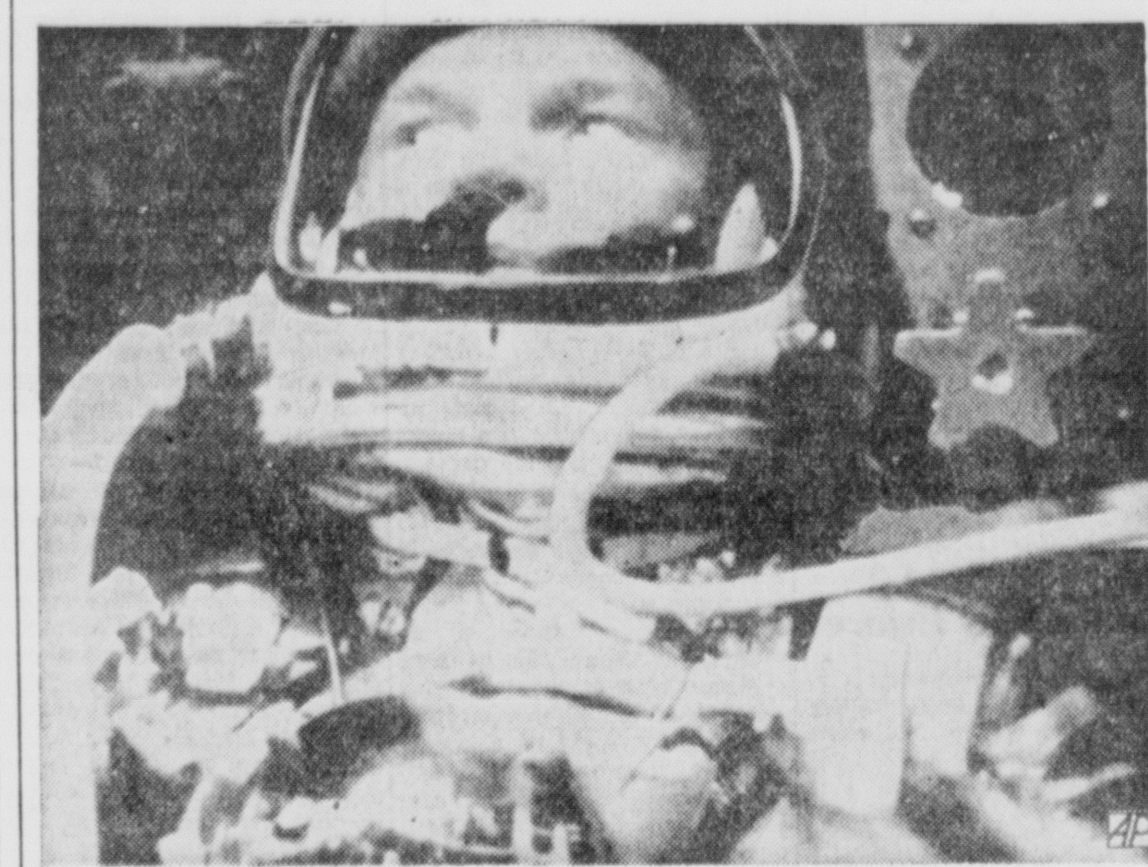

The second Norman Rockwell album will be presented Saturday. A report from Chairman Oscar Spicer showed the poster contest being held in the high school as part of Campaign Gettysburg is proving "successful." The poster made by the high school students will be placed on exhibit at the various stores enrolled in the campaign.

Fred Schultz, Roy Colsmith Jr. and Paul Ketterman Jr. were elected members of the Jaycees. Plans were made for a dinner March 8 at 6:30 p.m. in the Howard Johnson restaurant at which the new members secured during the last several months will be installed in the club.

COMPLETING SURVEY

H. C. Bennett, of Erdman-Anthony Associates, hired by the Gettysburg Planning Commission to complete a survey of traffic conditions for the town for use in the borough's planning, has begun his duties, according to the borough police call sheet.

Glenn Nears Landing In Atlantic

Dropping toward a landing in the Atlantic after three orbits of the earth on Feb. 20, astronaut John H. Glenn peers through porthole on his right. President Presents Glenn With Distinguished Service Medal At Cape Canaveral

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — President Kennedy gave astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. a medal today for his historic flight around the world and said for the nation "We appreciate it."

It was a simple but dramatic ceremony before Hangar S, the area where the 40-year-old Marine lieutenant colonel lived and trained for his flight Tuesday three times around the world in four hours and 56 minutes.

Afterward, Glenn and the President stood before the museum-bound space capsule Friendship 7 and Glenn told Kennedy of his flight, especially the re-entry phase.

EMOTIONAL DAY

For Glenn it was an emotional-packed day, one which saw him wipe his eyes with a handkerchief when he was reunited with his wife, children, parents and in-laws.

In presenting Glenn the Distinguished Service Medal of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, Kennedy said "17 years ago the Marines planted the American flag on Mt. Suribachi. Maybe in the not too distant future, Col. Glenn and the Marine Corps, or a Navy man or an airman will plant the American flag on the moon."

The President presented the medal to Glenn for his courage and "outstanding contribution to the human knowledge."

MEDAL TO GILRUTH

He gave a similar medal to Robert R. Gilruth, Project Mercury director, and because of emotion Gilruth could say little save "I'm very, very proud."

In replying to the President's presentation, Glenn looked first at the standing and applauding audience. With a grin of seeming embarrassment, he said: "Sit down, please."

Then the tanned and fit-looking astronaut said, "I can't express my appreciation."

"TEAM EFFORT"

Once more he said the whole mission was the end result of a team effort and added, "I was a sort of figurehead for the whole effort."

In introducing Glenn, the President called the astronaut's wife and children to stand beside the space hero, then he pointed at Glenn's mother and introduced her as "Mrs. Glenn, who launched Col. Glenn originally."

Kennedy flew into Cape Canaveral from Palm Beach and was greeted by Glenn, who escorted him on a tour of major Project Mercury facilities.

Then, in a brief ceremony at Hangar S, Kennedy awarded Glenn the Distinguished Service Medal of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration. The President also presented the same medal to Robert R. Gilruth, Project Mercury director.

WITH JOHNSON

The Air Force C130 jet ferrying the space hero from his two days of post-flight examination at Grand Turk Island taxied up to the base operations office at near-by Patrick Air Force Base.

Accompanying the astronaut in the big executive-type plane was Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, who flew to Grand Turk this morning.

A few minutes before Glenn's plane landed, another C130 carrying

College Choir Is Invited To Sing In Helsinki

The Gettysburg College Choir has been invited to participate in the services at the Congress of the Lutheran World Federation in Helsinki, Finland, in the summer of 1963.

The choir is one of three Lutheran college choirs and the only ULCA college choir invited to be an integral part of the formal assembly program.

Gettysburg College officials are making a study of the possibilities of accepting the invitation.

This marks the first time any Gettysburg College group has had an opportunity to represent the college abroad.

The choir appeared as a representative of the ULCA colleges at the Lutheran World Assembly in Minneapolis, Minn., in 1957.

The choir is directed by Prof. Parker B. Wagnild. Prof. Paul G. Peterson is faculty manager.

E. R. HARTMAN IS CANDIDATE

Attorney Eugene R. Hartman, Gettysburg R. 3, announced today as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for assemblyman from Adams County.

A graduate of Gettysburg High School, Shippensburg State College and Dickinson Law School, he has been a practicing attorney here for the last 13 years.

Mr. Hartman is president of the Adams County Shrine Club, a past president of the local Lions, former president of the Community Chest and is a former president of the County Tuberculosis Society and the Black Walnut District of the Boy Scouts. He is a former president of the Gettysburg High School Alumni Association and is a member of St. James Lutheran Church, a Sunday School leader and member of the Church Council. He is also a member of the Adams County Torch Club.

He is a veteran of World War II duty, serving from 1942 to 1946 when he was discharged as a staff sergeant. He is married to the former Jean H. Morgan and they have two sons.

Mr. Hartman is the first Democrat to announce for the office.

BLOOD DONORS

Blood donors at the Warner Hospital this week were: Mrs. G. Henry Roth, Mrs. Thelma Jaskiewicz, Lloyd Herring and Mrs. Evelyn Storm, all of Gettysburg; Robert Duncan, Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity, and Mrs. Edna Starnier, Bendersville.

SERVES ON CARRIER

Charles F. Hemler, air controlman third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Hemler, R. 6, is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Franklin D. Roosevelt, undergoing overhaul in the New York Naval Shipyard, Brooklyn, N. Y. He re-enlisted for six years in January.

Washington Day Program Presented

The Biglerville Junior High School presented a George Washington Day assembly program Thursday afternoon.

The program opened with a Bible reading by Sandra Trone. Kathy Volland offered the prayer followed by the Pledge to the Flag, led by Bruce Slonaker.

A poem, entitled "Washington's Birthday," by Arthur J. Burdick, was read by Patsy Coradetti. Jeffrey Brown presented an account of Washington's home in Mount Vernon.

A movie, entitled "George Washington," was shown. Lyn Galusha served as the announcer.

Biglerville Junior High School students were shown a film on "Survival" made by the U.S. Air Force at an assembly in the school auditorium this morning.

The following program was presented: Scripture by Ann Bushey; Lord's Prayer and flag salute led by Edgar Hildebrand, and procedures for defense in case of an all out enemy attack. The colored film was narrated by Raymond Massey. It was one of a series of instrumental programs that has been planned for the faculty and student body for the remainder of the school year.

CHIMNEY FIRE

Gettysburg firemen were called Thursday afternoon to a chimney fire at the home of Arnis Baker, near Knoxlyn. The firemen's services were not needed on arrival.

LOSES POCKETBOOK

Mrs. Dwight Strausbaugh, Ottanta R. 1, lost a pocketbook containing money in Gettysburg Thursday, according to borough police.

TO SHOW FILM

A film made recently at the Masonic home at Elizabethtown will be shown Sunday afternoon on WGAL-TV at Lancaster at 2:30 p.m.

WAS SURPRISE MOVE

The rebels led by a group of young colonels and reportedly supported by Gen. Muhiittin Onur, chief of ground forces, apparently caught the government by surprise as they took over strategic centers during the night to pave the way for a coup.

Inonu was cut off the air when he tried to speak over radio Ankara defending his coalition government. Tanks and troops surrounded the building.

The mutiny apparently was confined to the signal corps, the war academy, an armored school and an officers' gendarmerie school. But for a time it had appeared that other army elements might back the mutineers.

SALVAGE DEMOCRACY

The crisis forced leaders of all four political parties, including Inonu, to sign a joint declaration pledging themselves to work to salvage democracy in Turkey.

They appealed to the armed forces to avoid provocations. The turning point came when the three armies which garrisoned the country from the Greek border to the Soviet frontier, announced they would take orders only from General Sunay.

The revolt failed when chiefs of the air force, army and navy, led by Gen. Cevdet Sunay, rallied behind the premier. Sunay then pledged that the general staff

WILL ADDRESS DICKINSON FETE

Dr. C. A. Hanson, president of Gettysburg College, will speak on "Pursuit of Happiness" at the annual scholarship dinner at Dickinson College, Carlisle, February 27. Among the students who have achieved distinction in the classroom and who will be honored on this occasion is Roger M. Craver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Craver, 425 S. Washington St. He is a Junior.

The entire faculty and the officers of the Dickinson Chapter of Phi Beta Kappa will join in the tribute, which has been a highlight of every academic year at Dickinson since 1922.

Invitations have been extended to the 20 Seniors, 22 Juniors, 10 Sophomores and five Freshmen who achieved an overall average of 3.75 or better out of a possible 4.0 in either of the past two semesters.

4 INDUSTRIES INVESTIGATE LOCAL SITES

Four industries are currently considering the Gettysburg area as a site for plant locations, according to reports Tuesday at a meeting of the industrial committee of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce at the Hotel Gettysburg.

James Hays of the promotion committee reported that one industry considering location in the community will make its decision by the end of this month.

He reported also on details of a trip made by members of his committee to a prospective industry located in Baltimore. Officials of that firm in turn visited Gettysburg earlier this month to obtain further specifications and plans for consideration as potential sites for new plant development. A Cleveland, O., firm has also secured information concerning a number of industrial sites here, Hays reported.

Industrial Committee Chairman Francis Timlin reported on contacts by a New Jersey firm which is considering Gettysburg among possible sites for location of a new plant.

The statistics subcommittee chairman, Douglas Houston, said approximately 145,000 square feet of floor space is available for industrial use. He also agreed to make a reference map of the area pin pointing available industrial sites for O. L. Johnson of the state Department of Commerce.

Parr Clarifies Court Testimony

Arthur C. Parr, Ottanta R. 1, complainant against Garnet West, Fayetteville R. D. tavern proprietor, today asked The Times to clarify what he called was a misinterpretation of his testimony in the case Monday. He said that he testified that West pulled Parr's son, Daniel, from a car when they were leaving the premises, knocked him down; that he struck the senior West on the back of the head and then struck his son several times on the head. Parr said that West also struck him a second time and broke his glasses. He said the trouble resulted when Daniel Parr asked for a refund of two bottles of beer which he said was spoiled.

LOCAL MAN'S FATHER DIES

Charles Sherman, 80, Shippensburg, father of Mares Sherman, E. Broadway, died Thursday afternoon at his home. Heart failure was given as the cause of death. He had been in ill health for some time. In recent years he had been semiretired from the scrap and steel business.

The deceased was born in Lithuania. In 1908 he came to Shippensburg to join a cousin in business. Later he was naturalized. He spent most of his life in Shippensburg except for brief stays in Baltimore and Caledonia, Ala.

He is survived by seven children: Mares; L. D. Sherman, Harrisburg; Max S. Sherman, Chambersburg; Joseph, at home; Mrs. Irvin Spessler, Millersburg; Mrs. Grant Martin, Shippensburg, and Miss Freda Sherman at home; 15 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren. Mrs. Sherman passed away in 1953.

Mr. Sherman was a member of Keshet Israel Synagogue, Harrisburg.

It is customary in the orthodox faith to bury the dead within 24 hours. However, because some relatives will be unable to arrive at Shippensburg in time, funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the chapel of the Keshet Israel cemetery with Rabbi David L. Silver officiating.

MODERATE TRADING

NEW YORK (AP) — Savings-and-loans responded to favorable news by rising against the trend of a falling stock market early this afternoon. Trading was moderate.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was off .60 at 259.30 with industrials down 1.50, rails down .30 and utilities up .10. Elsewhere in the list, the pattern was of fairly general retreat except for utilities which held their own on balance.

FOUR INJURED, DRIVER JAILED IN CAR CRASHES

Four persons were injured in two auto accidents investigated by state police Thursday afternoon and night while a driver involved in an accident Thursday morning was placed in the county jail, charged with assault and battery by automobile.

The driver arrested was Larry Woodrow Dorsey, 20, Anderson, S. C., who was driving south near Twin Bridges and attempted to pass a car while towing another auto. His car smashed head on into a northbound car, badly injuring William J. Miller Jr., 22, Arlington, Va., and Miller's wife, Beverley, both of whom are patients at the Warner Hospital. Miller suffered, among other injuries, a compound fracture of the skull. The charge against Dorsey was placed by state police before a Heidersburg justice of the peace.

3 INJURED

Three persons were injured in an accident between a car and a farm tractor 2 1/2 miles north of here on the Biglerville Rd. at 9:22 o'clock Thursday night in the fog.

Those hurt were Richard Delroy Cluck, 20, of 219 Steinwehr Ave., who had contusions of the forehead, nose, chest and knee; Jacob F. Shockey, 37, Blue Ridge Summit, who had lacerations of the scalp, and contusions of the forehead and knee; and Stephen D. Gardner, 17, of 227 Steinwehr Ave., who had multiple lacerations of the face, left index, middle and ring fingers.

State police said Cluck was driving south in a sedan with Gardner as a passenger when the vehicle, traveling in the fog, collided with the rear of a southbound tractor driven by Shockey. Damage was estimated at $1,000 to the tractor and $250 to the sedan which was demolished. The three men were brought to the Warner Hospital here in the local firemen's ambulance.

HURT THURSDAY

Paul E. Baker, 49, Waynesboro, suffered lacerations of the forehead and chest injuries when his car left the highway and straddled a stone fence near the battlefield guides' station on the Emmitsburg Rd. State police estimated damage to his car, which was listed as demolished, at $1,600. According to the officers, Baker was driving north. When he attempted to pass a northbound car pulling a house trailer, his auto "glanced off" the side of the trailer and went out of control into the fence. He was removed to the Warner Hospital in the local firemen's ambulance. The crashed occurred about 1:30 p.m. Thursday.

LOCAL MAN'S FATHER DIES

Charles Sherman, 80, Shippensburg, father of Mares Sherman, E. Broadway, died Thursday afternoon at his home. Heart failure was given as the cause of death. He had been in ill health for some time. In recent years he had been semiretired from the scrap and steel business.

The deceased was born in Lithuania. In 1908 he came to Shippensburg to join a cousin in business. Later he was naturalized. He spent most of his life in Shippensburg except for brief stays in Baltimore and Caledonia, Ala.

A piano solo was played by Deborah Tuckey between the third and fourth acts.

PLAYS PLEASE AT HIGH SCHOOL

An audience estimated at nearly 400 enjoyed an evening of one-act plays Thursday at the Gettysburg High School with all of the roles being taken by junior high school pupils.

Students cast in major and minor roles in the varied program of comedy and drama won praise of the appreciative audience. School officials praised the series of plays as one of the finest presented there in recent years.

The first comedy, "Ruffles and Roller Skates," was a family play about an overambitious and indulgent mother opposed by a father who had come to believe discipline was needed in the family affairs. Then followed dramatization of an incident from the life of Abraham Lincoln. Mr. Lincoln did not appear but the story of an incident from his social life was portrayed by an all-girl cast.

The third play was a drama concerning an auto accident in a snow storm and the efforts of the driver, who had never been caught, to escape his guilt while the husband of the accident victim sought revenge. The concluding play, "The Revolt of Mother," was a farm story about a mother who had been promised a new house for years and who then moved into the new barn that had been erected instead.

The plays were directed by Miss Ruth McIlhenny and Mrs. Charles Smith with Fred G. Pfeiffer and Frank Borersox, now a York College student and former high school thespian here, assisting.

The name of Kenneth Hartman was inadvertently omitted from the play programs as a member of the cast for "Ruffles and Roller Skates."

63 PERSONS AT DAR LUNCHEON

The annual Washington Birthday luncheon of the DAR held at the Hotel Gettysburg Thursday was attended by 63 members and guests, among whom was Clarence Dearsdorf, president of the Adams County Historical Society. The tables bore silhouettes of Washington and Lincoln. Place cards imprinted with the Stars and Stripes and the Preamble to the Constitution also carried the "Grace before meals" taken from the original Presidential Thanksgiving Proclamation issued by George Washington on October 3, 1789. It was proclaimed in response to a Joint Congressional Resolution introduced by Elias Boudinot on September 25, 1789.

Following the pledge to the Flag, the grace was repeated in unison, led by Mrs. Elizabeth Hennig, chaplain.

Edward Parker, a student at the Lutheran Theological Seminary, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Shenandoah," accompanied by Mrs. A. Scott Moorhead. Mrs. Henry M. Scharf, regent, presided and Mrs. George Good introduced the speaker, Dr. Frederick S. Klein, head of the history department of Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, who spoke on "Washington and Lincoln: American Leaders in Times of Crisis." His address was published in Thursday's edition of The Gettysburg Times.

Mrs. Scharf closed the meeting with quotations from Washington. She announced that the board of directors will meet Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the Hotel Gettysburg and the next meeting of the DAR will be held March 22 at the YWCA with a program on "The American Indians" by Mrs. Bernard Rehmeier and Mrs. John A. MacPhail.

The second annual Table Fashions Tea, sponsored by the Prince of Peace Episcopal churchwomen, will be held on Friday, May 4, from 2 to 6 p.m. at the Gettysburg Country Club, on the theme "The World of Springtime." Entries will be received from March 1 to April 20 and the entry fee of $2.50 should be sent with an entry blank to Mrs. Thomas L. Cline, Country Club Lane, R. 2. A group may enter one table in each of Classes 1, 2 and 3 and any individual may enter a table. Because of limited space, there can be only 10 entries in each class so the first 10 received will be accepted.

Class 1 will be for formal tables; class 2 for informal tables; class 3 for buffet or tea table and class 4, commercial. Four first prizes of $10 each will be awarded and 3 second prizes of $5 in the first 3 classes. One ribbon prize will be awarded to the overall winner of the Table Fashions for overall effectiveness. Tables are to be set up between 9 and 11 o'clock May 4. Judging will take place at noon. Prizes will be awarded at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Arnold L. Paparazo, president, has announced the following committee chairman for this event: Entries and arrangements, Mrs. Cline; invitations and rules, Mrs. Paparazo; publicity, Mrs. Guyon E. Boehrer; judges and prizes, Mrs. Bruce Bugbee; churchwomen's tea table, Mrs. James Myers; pourers, Mrs. William T. Richardson; door prizes, Mrs. W. E. Hornor; ticket distribution and treasurer, Mrs. Owen Reynolds; guest book, Mrs. Arthur R. Buehler, telephone chairman, Mrs. John Kershaw; tea chairman, Mrs. George Hettler; decorator, Mrs. E. B. Cranall; club decorations and name tags, Mrs. Roy H. Hammond; hostesses, Mrs. William N. Storms.

The parliamentary committee of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Gettysburg Fire Company will meet Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. William Gallagher, 453 W. Middle St.

The Eagles will hold a dance Saturday evening with music by the Electrons. The Melody Men will play for the Elks dance Saturday evening. The Moose lodge will hold a family party this evening. There will be dancing to Pat Patterson's Orchestra Saturday evening with floor shows at 10:15 and 12 o'clock. The VFW will hold a Washington's Birthday dance this evening from 10 to 2, with music by Charles Daniels and His Jaguars. Saturday evening the Variety Trio will play for dancing.

ASK WARNING LIGHT ON 15 TO SAVE HOUSE

Controversy over a request for a traffic blinker on U. S. 15 in Emmitsburg, on a curve just north of the town square, continued to build up today in a tangle of conflicting official versions over the status of the long-discussed plans.

Meanwhile, at least one Emmitsburg family, whose home is located on the dangerous curve where cars frequently strike the dwelling, disclosed an appeal had been made direct to Governor J. Millard Tawes. Members of the Charles B. Shorb family said their home is gradually beginning to fall apart under the beating inflicted by automobiles and trucks that fail to negotiate the curve.

Disclosure of the appeal to the governor focused new attention on a problem which was recently described as apparently near solution. Town officials had said they were asking permission of the state Roads Commission to place a blinker light at the curve and were given the impression that the authority would be conveyed officially "in two or three days."

Mayor Edward Houck of Emmitsburg said he felt the problem was being solved following a visit to the town by George Lewis of the SRC traffic division.

Town officials say they have not received notice that the SRC has granted the corporation's request for permission, although a resolution granting it was reported passed in Baltimore a week ago.

"Capsule Sale" At Dave's Photo Shop

Dave's Photo Supply, Steinwehr Ave., is marking its 15th anniversary with a "Capsule Sale," according to an advertisement appearing in The Gettysburg Times.

The sale continues through March 1. It began Thursday. According to the advertisement, the many items in the store have been given bargain prices. In addition each customer purchasing merchandise worth $10 or more will pick a capsule from a fish bowl. The capsules contain discount slips ranging from 15 to 30 per cent. The purchaser is then given the amount of discount listed in the capsule when he pays for the merchandise.

David Garfinkle, who started Dave's Photo Shop on Chambersburg St., moved to Gettysburg in 1931 and began his business as a hobby. After World War II service, he opened his business here in 1947. He moved the store to Steinwehr Ave. about two years ago.

RUFFIN STORY

(Continued From Page 1) bourne" plantation near Richmond in 1862. The soldier, according to a letter read by Knickerbocker, described corn "18 feet high and apple and peach orchards breaking down from the amount of fruit on the trees." He described Ruffin's home as beautiful and his library of thousands of volumes "the home of a scholar."

Other soldiers less perceptive scattered the library and defaced the walls of the house, knowing only that Ruffin was one of the men most prominent in bringing about the Confederacy.

Ruffin's agriculture work was designed primarily to promote the plantations and the southern aristocracy who were destroying the land with cotton and tobacco crops and then moving on to new land. Ruffin believed implicitly in Negro slavery and believed that the South could find prosperity by becoming independent of the North and founding its economy securely on agriculture. Through his writings and speeches, despite opposition by many Southerners, he and a few other men were able to arouse the South so that it sought to secede from the Union.

STATE TROOPER SPEAKER FOR SR. EXTENSION

Trooper Andrew Horvath, safety education officer for the Pennsylvania State Police, Harrisburg, spoke on the use of radar and highway safety at the meeting of the Adams County Senior Extension Club Thursday evening at the West St. branch of the Gettysburg National Bank.

Horvath explained that radar is designed to increase safety on the highways by halting speeding and showed a number of pictures depicting auto accidents. Noting that some persons apparently do not favor radar as a means of detecting speeders, Trooper Horvath said that, while he was enroute to Gettysburg on the Harrisburg-Rd. he noted a sign "Beaware—Radar Ahead."

Plans were made for a dinner meeting March 23 at the Lamp Post Tea Room here at which William Conley, York big game hunter, will show films on "Africa—Its People and Its Game." To promote the current membership campaign of the organization it was decided that those who bring with them prospective members will be charged 75 cents for the meal. Those members who arrive without a prospective member with them will be charged $1.75.

ing the other six astronauts and Project Mercury officials landed at the base, which serves as administration headquarters for the Atlantic missile range.

EMBRACES FAMILY

A Secret Service man stepped off the Glenn plane first, followed by Johnson and then Glenn with a big smile on his face.

There was a burst of applause from several hundred people gathered at the field when Johnson and Glenn appeared. Following them off the plane were Robert R. Gilruth, Project Mercury director, and Walter C. Williams, Mercury operations director.

Glenn embraced his daughter, Carolyn, 14, who was waiting at the base of the ramp with other members of the family. Then he quickly hugged his wife and kissed her, holding her tightly for a few seconds.

TEAR-DIMMED EYES

Then, emotion getting the better of him, he reached for his handkerchief and dabbed at his eyes. Next he turned to his son, David, 16, and spoke a few words to him.

Mrs. Glenn was wearing a red suit and hat with a veil. Carolyn, who says she prefers the nickname Lyn, was wearing a pale yellow suit and white kerchief.

Both Carolyn and Mrs. Glenn wore large white corsages. David sported a white carnation in his jacket.

HONOR GUARD SALUTES

An Air Force honor guard snapped to attention and saluted as Glenn and Johnson walked to their cars. The crowd, now swelled to hundreds, cheered and clapped.

While standing with his family to pose for pictures, Glenn stepped back to say a few words to his parents. His mother remarked: "Quite a trip." Glenn answered: "Some trip. You can't just quite describe it."

Before entering the cars in the motorcade headed for the Cape Canaveral rocket base, Johnson stepped to a microphone.

"It's a great pleasure," Johnson said, "to welcome home a great pioneer of history."

Johnson reviewed Glenn's 4-hour 56-minute flight and noted that afterward Soviet Premier Khrushchev had congratulated the United States and suggested that the two countries pool their resources for exploration of space.

BIG ACCOMPLISHMENT

Johnson turned to Glenn and commented: "So, colonel, you must feel you have done something that two presidents have been unable to do."

Turning to the beaming crowd, Johnson said "I know you all are with me in seeing this great man reunited with his wife and two typically American children and his mother and father and his other relatives. It's good to have you back, John."

Glenn, stepping to the microphone, said he was glad to be aboard and very proud of the way the flight turned out. He was receiving the acclaim, he emphasized, as the representative of all the people who labored on the Mercury project.

LAUD GROUNDWORK

Glenn, as astronauts Alan B. Shepard Jr., and Virgil I. (Gus) Grissom did after their flights, stressed the "we" element in the

IT'S ALL OFF FOR FRANKIE AND JULIET

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Dancer Juliet Prowse won't be the third Mrs. Frank Sinatra.

She and the singer abruptly broke off their engagement Thursday night, blaming career trouble.

Sinatra and Miss Prowse announced six weeks ago that they planned to marry. They hadn't gotten around to setting the date, although April and June had been mentioned.

WEALTHY BACHELOR

The break came suddenly. A terse announcement said: "A conflict of career interests has led us to make this decision jointly. We both feel it is better to make it now rather than later."

A publicity spokesman added: "Neither will be available for comment. There will be no amplification."

Sinatra, 46, long a bachelor, a millionaire with a string of gorgeous girls, surprised even many close friends when he announced he planned to marry the leggy dancer from South Africa.

HE'S TWICE WED

Miss Prowse, 25, never married before and new in Hollywood, was much less famous than some of Sinatra's dates and less flashy than others.

Sinatra's two previous marriages — to childhood sweetheart Nancy Barbato and actress Ava Gardner — also were plagued with career troubles. His skyrocketing fame as a crooner rocked the first, and Miss Gardner's prominence for a while outstripped his own.

SPACE ADVENTURES

He noted that the suborbital flights of Shepard and Grissom laid the groundwork for his three circuits of the globe.

"We learned a lot from these flights," Glenn said, "and future flights will tell us a lot more."

He said he happened to be receiving much of the acclaim and attention now, but that similar glory should also go to the thousands of persons who made the flight possible—the people who built the Atlas, the capsule, also the tracking people and men of the recovery fleet.

Glenn, his wife and Johnson stepped into an automobile for the motorcade 15 miles north to Cape Canaveral, where Glenn had a date with President Kennedy. Thousands of persons lined the route—a four-lane highway.

Heading the parade was a Florida Highway Patrol car. In second position was the astronaut's car, driven by a Secret Service man.

In separate cars directly behind were the other six astronauts—Shepard, Grissom, Donald K. Slayton, who has been named to make the second orbital flight, probably in April; Walter Schirra; Leroy Cooper; and Scott Carpenter, who was Glenn's backup pilot.

Members of the Glenn family were in other cars. Included were Mr. and Mrs. John H. Glenn Sr., Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Castor, Anna Glenn's parents, and Mr. and Mrs. James Hoseney of Pittsburgh, Pa., Anna's brother-in-law and sister.

100,000 CROWD

The senior Glenns and the Castors live in New Concord, Ohio. Police estimated the crowd at about 100,000, one of the biggest in Cocoa Beach history. An estimated 55,000 jammed the nearby beaches when Glenn's Atlas rocket blasted off on Tuesday.

The Glenn motorcade passed through the south gate at Cape Canaveral at 9:59 a.m.—exactly one hour after it left Patrick.

Missile workers left their jobs to wave to Glenn as his car headed for the spot where President Kennedy's plane was to land after a short flight from Palm Beach.

Shortly after 10 a.m., a plane bearing congressmen, space agency and other dignitaries from Washington landed. Among those aboard was Gen. David M. Shoup, commandant of the Marine Corps.

Bass Fiddle Off Church Loot List

Part of the supposed loot from a burglary discovered at St. James Lutheran Church Thursday was not among the items taken by the intruder, James Reaver informed borough police today.

Reaver, who discovered the loss, and borough police were puzzled as to how a burglar could remove a bass fiddle from the church without being seen.

They found out later Thursday that the burglar did not have the fiddle. One of the orchestra members had it at his home for practice.

Pet Dog Killed On Crossing Here

A prize winning dog was the victim of a speeding motorist recently.

"Corky," six-year-old pet Chihuahua of the Misses Myrtle and Bes Shriver, E. Middle St., was struck Saturday by a motorist while the dog was crossing Baltimore St. at High St. on a green light.

The Misses Shriver, one of whom stayed awake all night looking for the return of the pet, learned of its death from a person who reported seeing a speeding car strike the small dog but did not know its owner. Borough workmen later removed the dead animal.

A neighborhood pet, the dog had won "prettiest pet" honors in a playground dog show last summer when entered by a neighborhood youngster.

dom proposal for the foreign ministers meeting.

Khrushchev's letter was the latest in a series of exchanges involving him, Kennedy and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan. Kennedy and Macmillan opened the series Feb. 7 with a call for a foreign ministers meeting. Khrushchev on Feb. 10 raised the bid to a summit conference. His proposal was rejected by the two Western leaders Feb. 14 and his message Thursday was a reply to their rejection.

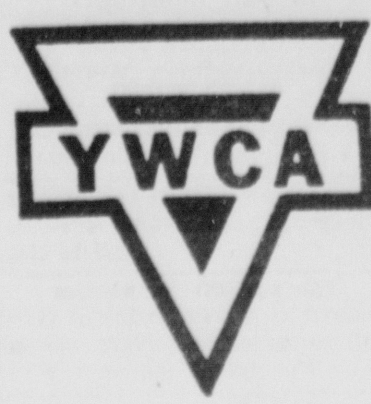

CHANGE IN TONE

The letter from Khrushchev gave no indication whether he would go to Geneva even though Kennedy and Macmillan did not. But in the initial study of the letter here officials were less concerned with that aspect of the problem than with the change in tone which Khrushchev employed.

Informants said that the text, which still has not been made public, was filled with familiar Soviet propaganda arguments and was sharp and insistent, whereas Khrushchev's earlier response had been relatively mild and cordial.

Today's Talk

ON DESERVING
Mostly we get what we deserve. And there is something of the unknown and mysterious good always awaiting us.

Much of the zest of life comes from the many surprises that crop up before us as we go along. Humdrum always kills and wipes out.

Everything earned is deserved. But the irony of life seems to work along an unnatural law in some cases for the pay of some of the most deserving in this world is all too often held up, or comes too late.

You have to give in order to merit desert and appreciation.

The law of returned happiness is very simple. You just have to make a little of it and then put it in the bank where it draws interest. The bank is the world.

Like hunts out like. Pansies grow together. And so we are deserving of that which we plant, cultivate, nurture, love and build. And the world is enlarged by the minutest effort of the simplest man to do good, to add sunshine and to lessen sorrow.

The flower gives out its perfume and human beings are attracted to its exquisite colorings, so softly fashioned and so like the silent songs of the stars, or the sunsets, or falling snowflakes on a winter's day.

The flower and snowflake deserve their beauty. So do you deserve all that you get from the gift of talent and ability which is yours and which you convert into works, deeds, and higher forms of expression!

It's a sad thing to get something you do not deserve!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Companionship"

Projected, 1962, by The George Matthews Adams Service

Just Folks

FOR THE LIVING
When a friend is lying dead,
All the things you might have said
Come tripping very quickly to the tongue.

Oh, you sing his praises then
To his living fellowmen
In a way that he had never heard them sung.

You are very quick to say
O'er a lifeless bit of clay
The fine things that the spirit never heard.

But to all those standing near
Who have ears, and still can hear,
You never seem to say a cheery word.

If that wan and pallid cheek
And those silent lips could speak,
If the spirit could return once it had fled,

What think you that it would say
To us all who stand today
And gather to give praises to the dead?

It would whisper: "Go your ways;
I am past the need of praise,
Though I've hungered for the kind words you are giving;

Seek some earnest brother here
Who is much in need of cheer,
Give your roses and your praises to the living."

SEEKS PUBLIC INSURANCE FOR WORKER CLAIM

By NORMAN WALKER
Associated Press Labor Writer
BAL HARBOUR, Fla. (AP)—Labor union leaders said today their lawyers are drafting legislation for Congress to establish a public insurance system to guarantee failing corporations make good on worker pension claims.

The idea is to apply the same sort of plan that insures payment of bank deposits when banks default.

The union chiefs said certain companies that have failed have wiped out the accrued pension rights of workers that are in effect savings put aside for the workers' old age.

Walter Reuther, head of the United Auto Workers Union, who initiated the plan in the AFL-CIO industrial unions department, has won backing of fellow federation swerved across a medial strip on the superhighway, police said, colliding with a westbound auto driven by Mrs. Mary Alperpi, 27, of North Babylon, N.Y.

State police said the turnpike was wet but not icy at the time of the accident. There are no guard rails separating the two lanes where the accident occurred.

Mrs. Alperpi and her children, Nancy, 7; Richard, 6; Bernadette, 3, and Marylyn, 3 months, were admitted to Montgomery Hospital here.

SCAVENGER IS DEATH CAUSE IN BUILDING

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A city official says the removal of cast iron upright supports by scavengers was the only possible cause of a wall collapsing in a vacant building, killing one man, possibly trapping another and injuring four persons.

The official, Development Coordinator William L. Rafsky, made the statement Thursday after touring the site of the building with Mayor James H. J. Tate. The building was marked for demolition.

Rafsky said cast iron supports bring a high price on the scrap metal market. He said city engineers had inspected the building two weeks ago and found it to be structurally sound.

WOMEN SCREAMING
With a thundering sound, the wall of the top three floors of the six-story building on historic Market Street toppled down against the rear of several other stores. Women employees ran screaming into the streets.

Found dead in the debris was Mark Miles, 19, who, according to his family, was in the junk business. He was in the vacant building when the wall gave way.

Possibly trapped in the building is Thomas Harris, 20, a companion of Miles. Fire Chief George Hink said a check had disclosed Harris had not returned home and has not been seen by his friends.

SET UP FLOODLIGHTS

Floodlights were set up Thursday night to permit a demolition firm to continue working into the night in an effort to uncover the companion Hink said might still be alive in an air pocket.

Nine employees were in or near a one-story, two-office rear extension of the store which was virtually buried when the cascade of rubble fell.

One of them, Roger Jones, 43, hastily pulled aside a timber and rescued another employee, James Harris, 39. A third employee in the rear office, Bernard E. Meltzer, 23, was helped to safety.

The three and Mrs. Grace Tiley, 41, of Pennsauken, N. J., a bookkeeper, were taken to Jefferson Hospital for treatment.

"It wasn't anything," said Jones later. "I did what anyone else would do."

The building which gave way had been formerly occupied by the Garrett-Buchanan Paper Co. It was being razed to make way for development of the Independence Hall urban renewal program.

Steel Negotiations Being Continued

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Top-level negotiations continue today in efforts to reach agreement on new labor contracts in the basic steel industry.

Chief negotiators wrapped up their seventh day of conferences Thursday and reported that talks are centering on broad economic matters and various side issues.

In a joint statement, David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers Union, and R. Conrad Cooper of U.S. Steel Corp., said:

"While we continued . . . with chiefs to push such legislation in Congress.

Reuther said that every year some firms go out of business with resulting loss of pension rights by thousands of workers. Often, he added, pension funds are insufficient to maintain benefits for workers already retired or to provide payments for those nearing retirement.

The proposed legislation would require that pension trusts pay nominal fees to an insurance firm, just as the Federal Deposits Insurance Corporation requires many banks to insure deposits.

Railroad union chiefs took time out from winter meetings of the AFL-CIO Executive Council to confer Thursday night with top executives of the Pennsylvania and New York Central railroads over labor objections to their proposed merger.

Both sides said the meeting was merely an exchange of views. But the talks evidently failed to budge the labor organizations from their opposition to the NYC-Pennsy mergers.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
BASICS OF SKIN CARE. If you could do with a smoother or fresher complexion, make an appointment with "Dr. Diet and Dr. Quiet."

Simple fare and adequate rest are basic to skin beauty. No amount of external care can fully overcome the damage done by a shoddy health regimen.

Sleep literally renews the skin's cells. It also mends the nerves. How then could a woman lacking sufficient rest hope to starve off lines? Or how could a teen expect to clear up blemishes?

When properly "fed," the skin positively flourishes. The food elements that do the most toward its welfare are proteins and vitamin A. You get your share of protein in meat, fish, fowl and cottage cheese. Vitamin A comes in milk, eggs, yellow and leafy-green vegetables and citrus fruits.

Not at all to the skin's liking are large quantities of sweets and fats. The figure's, either!

But that does not mean you should ever cut out all fats and sweets. They produce part of the energy that makes you tick. Just be sane about your intake. Most days, have plain cake instead of a gooey concoction. Choose a baked potato over French fries.

When your skin fails to respond to a diet-and-quiet regimen, coupled, of course, with the proper external care, it's time to check in with another doctor—your own!

A LOVELIER COMPLEXION

Whatever your skin problems, to find a solution send for my booklet, "A LOVELIER COMPLEXION." Detailed advice contained includes the correct care for dry, oily, combination and normal skin types; proper application methods; treatments for blackheads, enlarged pores, circles, wrinkles, crepiness, etc. For your copy of "A LOVELIER COMPLEXION," write me: A Lovelier You, Box 156, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing a LARGE SELF-ADDRESSED, STAMPED ENVELOPE and 20c in coin to cover cost and handling.

Juvenile Delinquency

Part IV—The Forestry Camp
By VINCENT P. CAROCCI
WHITE HAVEN, Pa. (AP) — The sign over the porch reads: Youth Forestry Camp No. 2.

Almost five inches of snow is on the ground as you drive up the steep, one-lane road leading to "the house." "The house" is the temporary home of 19 boys—boys who were segregated from society by the courts.

You are aware that the camp is one of three such facilities operated by the Public Welfare Department. They, plus three youth development centers, are facilities designed to help the delinquent prepare himself for his return to society.

Three or four boys are on the porch loading laundry into a camp truck as you reach the parking area. They look at you curiously, but continue at their tasks.

"MANOR HOUSE"
A tall, slender man—he's counselor Tom Glidden, but you don't know it then—greets you and your companions and takes you inside the home in search of the camp director.

The home, you later learn, was formerly called "Manor House," a country haven of the late Gen. Harry C. Trexler, a prominent Allentown businessman. The location is now called Hickory Run State Park.

Trexler also was a power in Pennsylvania politics. Manor House entertained many Republican politicians of the day, governors, U.S. senators. Legend has it that many a Pennsylvania governor was selected in this setting in days gone by.

But today Manor House accommodates juvenile delinquents—juvenile delinquents who are considered most susceptible to rehabilitative treatment.

PATCHED PLASTER
Once inside the door, you are taken aback by the interior . . . the chipped and patched plaster on the walls and ceilings.

The hardwood floors are patched and scraped, but clean. A square ventilator cover is in the middle of the hallway. You learn that the huge vent coming from the basement provides the home with its "central heating system."

You note the worn condition of the furniture; the juke box; the old piano; the television set; the book cases containing novels and magazines; the old Bible sitting atop the book case.

The camp director, Ajax Moody, is a short stocky man with a receding hairline.

"Let's sit in here," Moody says as he leads you to what could be called the living room. It has a rug on the floor.

DAY STARTS AT 6:30
Moody tells you the day begins at 6:30 a.m. when the boys get up for breakfast. The boys are down for a short-order type breakfast at 7; it usually lasts until square, and they in turn requested the Post Office Department. "A favorable reply has been received," Mehring said, and it is anticipated that the box will be placed in the near future.

Large Church Still Growing In Downtown Dallas, Texas

By MARSHALL COMERER
DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—At a time when many downtown churches have been forced to move to new neighborhoods or the suburbs to serve the members, the First Baptist Church of Dallas becomes more robust each year.

The massive red brick church, built in 1890, occupies a block on the edge of the business district. Three buildings nearby house many of its weekday functions and recreational activities that range from hobby rooms and a library to a complete gymnasium, a 4-lane bowling alley and a skating rink. The first three floors of one building are a parking garage which members use free of charge on Sunday.

Less than 3 per cent of its 12,000 members live within a 2-mile radius of the church, the largest in the Southern Baptist Convention. Most live 15 to 20 miles away.

Last December members oversubscribed a $1,218,600 budget, called by the pastor, Dr. W. A. Criswell, "the largest of any church in the history of Christendom."

"We are not a wealthy congregation," said Dean Willis, business administrator. "About half of our members give between $50 and $300 per year. A fourth give less than $50 and a fourth more than $300. Forty-five per cent of those who made pledges said they

Although First Baptist has 12,000 members, it counts only 7,500 persons as active in its giving program. Of these 6,500 are enrolled in Sunday School.

The church places great emphasis on its Sunday School. A paid, full-time staff member supervises each age division from nursery to adult. With a few exceptions classes have 8 to 30 members.

The $1,218,600 budget provides $502,045 for denominational, benevolent and missionary programs; $501,855 for local church programs and $214,700 for building indebtedness and capital outlays.

The largest item in the local church budget is $237,565 for salaries of the ministers, staff, office and maintenance personnel, workers in the nursery for children of mothers attending services and weekday programs and a supervisor for the recreational program.

Members Of '61 Scholastic Cage Team Hurt In College This Year By Many Injuries

By DAVE LEHERR

HARRISBURG (AP)—It's been a tough year for the top vote getters on the 1961 Associated Press all-state basketball team.

Injuries spoiled the college debuts of Ronnie Krick and Ken Legins. Emerson Baynard was forced to leave school because of financial reasons.

And Uniontown's Don Yates, the only junior on last year's squad, has been hampered by a sprained wrist almost all season.

Krick—who scored a record breaking 3,174 points while at West Reading—has missed all but three games for the University of Cincinnati freshman team because of arm and shoulder injuries.

Even so, the 6-9 forward managed to pump in 60 points—17 against the Miami of Ohio freshman squad, 30 against Marshall College and 13 in 13 minutes against the Aconia Flyers.

LEGINS AT GW

Legins, the big forward from Nanticoke, also ran into the same trouble, spraining an ankle that's kept him on the sidelines for most of George Washington's freshman contests.

Baynard, Chester's 1961 spark-plug, was the big gun for John Hancock Jr. College of Santa Maria, Calif., before leaving school. He led the school to an 8-0 record with an average of 23.9 points a game. Hancock dropped two in a row after his departure.

Yates sprained his wrist about mid-season but still managed to stay in Uniontown's lineup for at least 20 minutes each game. Despite the injury the 6-2 senior averaged about 20 points a game, and helped the Red Raiders capture another WPIAL Section 5 championship.

ESCAPED INJURY

The fifth man on last year's all state squad—Dave Thomas of Shamokin—was the only player to escape misfortune. Thomas is the leading scorer and play maker for the Davidson College freshman quintet in North Carolina.

It's playoff time again in Pennsylvania, and all three 1961 state champions—Nanticoke (Class A), Fort Cherry (Class B) and West Reading (Class C)—are still in contention.

Nanticoke, sporting an unblemished 6-0 league record, seems sure of a Dist. 2 playoff spot. Fort Cherry already has sewed up another WPIAL Section 15 crown, and West Reading earned a Dist. 3 playoff spot by the skin of its teeth last Tuesday night. The Cowboys are seeking their fourth straight Class C title.

The playoffs get under way next week in the sprawling Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League.

COFAVORITES

Farrell and Uniontown are slight cofavorites to succeed Mount Lebanon as WPIAL champion. First, however, Uniontown has to beat Monessen next Tuesday in a playoff for the district's Section 5 title—Farrell's first-round opponent is North Union, next Wednesday.

Mount Lebanon gets a first round bye, opening playoff activity in the second round against the winner of a game between Clairton and the Section 12 crown bearer. Section 12 wound up in a four-way tie, to be settled with games Friday and Monday.

Baseball League Meeting Sunday

A meeting of the South Penn Baseball League will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the American Legion home, Baltimore St., when additional plans will be made for the coming season.

Robert Kritchman, president, has reported that all of last year's teams will again enter. Hunters-town, which has played all of its home games on the New Oxford diamond for several seasons, will be identified as New Oxford this year.

SEEK SOFTBALL TEAM

The South Adams Softball League of the Hanover area is seeking a team from here and anyone interested is requested to get in touch with Carroll Fuhrman, 479 S. High St., Hanover, telephone ME 7-2419. The league is a fast-pitch organization and games are played Tuesday and Friday evenings.

FAIRFIELD HI LOSES FINAL AT SCOTLAND

Fairfield High School closed out a disastrous basketball season Thursday evening when it dropped a 56-28 decision at Scotland in an Adams-Franklin League game. The loss was the 19th in 20 games for the Fairfield outfit.

Scotland, second place team in the Franklin Division, led the entire way after jumping out to a 16-9 lead in the first quarter.

Cal Bream collected 13 points for Fairfield while Rickie Dubose led the Cadets with 18.

George Haines, the lone Fairfield player to be lost this year via graduation, netted six points.

The Scotland reserves took the preliminary 56-24 as the Fairfield payees went winless in 18 contests.

EIGHT CHOSEN FOR TOURNEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Eight at large teams have been selected for the 32-team NCAA College Division (small college) Basketball Tournament, the NCAA Service Bureau announced today.

In addition, Florida A & M (21-0), has won entry as Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association champion.

A total of 21 at large entries and 11 conference winners make up the field for the tournament, with the finals scheduled for Evansville, Ind., March 15-17.

Defending champion Wittenberg must still win its way into the field, by capturing the Ohio Athletic Conference title in the March 3 tourney.

The NCAA announced the following at large entries:

Arkansas State (14-5), Evansville (13-9), Lamar Tech of Texas (17-6), Valparaiso (14-5), Youngstown of Ohio (14-10), Nebraska Wesleyan, Lincoln (16-5), and Southern Illinois (16-7).

Warner 14th In National Scoring

Ron Warner, Gettysburg College cager, stands 14th among the nation's major college scorers in games through February 17, according to the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau.

In his first 20 games, Warner tabbed 504 points for an average of 25.2 per game.

The Bulletin team is 16th among the defensive units on games through February 20, allowing an average of 61.2.

W. Va. Gets 1st Negro Gridder

HINTON, W. Va. (AP)—Half-back Dick Leftridge, generally considered the outstanding high school prospect in West Virginia, has signed a grant-in-aid agreement to become the first Negro member of the West Virginia University football squad.

Gene Corum, West Virginia coach, said that the 17-year-old 212-pounder "has a fine attitude, is a good student and a boy of excellent character."

Leftridge, who played for Hinton High School, had visited the campuses of Ohio State, Purdue and Villanova over the past three weekends.

Nine members of West Virginia's 1961 starting lineup will return for the 1962 football season.

RED SHIRT DRAFT

DALLAS (AP)—The American Football League has conducted a supplemental draft, grabbing 24 of the 29 "red shirt" draftees of the National Football League, including Halfback Gursky of Penn State.

Coeds Sustain First Cage Loss

A fast-moving East Stroudsburg State College girl's basketball team sent the Gettysburg Bulletpoints down to their first defeat of the season by taking a 54-39 decision here Thursday afternoon.

The visitors played a faster brand of basketball than the Bulletpoints were accustomed to and consequently continually out-rebounded the Gettysburg girls.

After East Stroudsburg took a 16-10 lead following the first period, the visitors forged ahead in the second frame scoring 15 counters to the Bulletpoints' three.

Ann Albright paced the winners with 21 points, 13 coming in the deciding second quarter. Barb Seaseck also tallied 21 for East Stroudsburg. Lynn Brown again topped Gettysburg with 17 while Virginia Havens tallied 13.

The Gettysburg junior varsity rolled to its fourth win without a loss by capturing a 41-17 verdict in the second game. Fran Heinrich was high for Gettysburg with 19 while Barb Barbini topped the visitors with nine.

On Saturday at 2 p.m. the Bulletpoints will meet Wilson College at Chambersburg.

DOUG SANDERS ON SAME TRAIL AS LAST YEAR

By ED TUNSTALL

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Now, let's don't start something cooking like New Orleans might be a lucky spot for Doug Sanders, who seems to have picked up right where he left off last year in the $30,000 Greater New Orleans Open Golf Tournament.

Sanders, 29, recorded a four-under-par 68 to the little-known Ed Oldfield and victory-starved Wes Ellis Jr., for Thursday's first round lead.

"No, I don't consider this a lucky spot for me, and I certainly don't find this course a soft touch," he said after turning in his first round scorecard. "I'm just putting a lot better and playing more."

OLDFIELD SURPRISE

Oldfield, 28, something of an unknown quantity and quality, too, for that matter, could certainly be classed as the surprise. The club pro from Golf, Ill., is a rare performer on the tour.

Ellis was among the last half-dozen finishers and the 6,700-yard City Park course was well shrouded with shadows when he appeared at the last hole and dropped a three-footer for a birdie and the lead-tying score.

Ellis, 30, who came here from West Caldwell, N.J., where he has a club job, last tasted victory in the 1959 Texas open.

Behind the top three as the second round opened today were Phil Rodgers of La Jolla, Calif., one of this year's big money winners despite his rookie status; the 1960 New Orleans champion, Dow Finsterwald; a New Orleans golf range operator, Ronald Millet; and Bo Winger, all with 69's.

NORWAY LEADS SKIING MEET

ZAKOPANE, Poland (AP)—Norway has been the most successful nation so far during the 1962 World Nordic Skiing Championships and now has a good chance to finish as the best nation in men's events when the championships end next Sunday.

The Norwegian men skiers have scored 41 points in seven of the 10 scheduled events, according to the unofficial European Olympic points tabulations which give 7 points for first places, 5 for second, etc.

Second in men's events is Sweden with 21 points followed by Finland 17, Russia 13, Italy 6, Poland and East Germany 5 each, and France and Austria one point each. The U.S. men have been shut out.

Sweden won the men's 40-kilometer relay race Thursday ahead of Finland, Russia and Norway.

Injured Puckster Still In Danger

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Les Kozak, of the Rochester Americans, a candidate for American Hockey League rookie-of-the-year honors, remained on the danger list in "fair" condition early today at Roger Williams Hospital.

Kozak underwent brain surgery Thursday. He suffered a deep head cut and a depressed fracture when he was checked by Providence defenseman Ferny Flaman in a Wednesday night game here.

MARIS, CEPEDA ARE UNSIGNED; KALINE IN FOLD

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Baseball's harried club officials face the imposing task of wiping out a bulging list of 50 unsigned players, including homer hammerers Roger Maris and Orlando Cepeda, before the March 1 deadline, six days away officially.

The ranks of the unsigned luminaries were thinned Thursday when outfielder Al Kaline ended his salary dispute with the Detroit Tigers, outfielder Minnie Minoso signed with the St. Louis Cardinals and outfielder Vada Pinson came to terms with the Cincinnati Reds.

But the large number of headlines involved in major tug-of-wars still includes such standouts as Maris, the Yankees' 61-homer hitter; Cepeda, San Francisco's National League home run kingpin, and an outstanding supporting cast.

TIGERS NEED FOUR

The Tigers have satisfied Kaline but American League batting champ Norm Cash and slugger Rocky Colavito are standing firm in their monetary demands while pitchers Paul Foytack and Terry Fox also are of the unsigned ledgers.

Rounding out some off the top names are pitchers Camilo Pascual and Pedro Ramos of Minnesota, outfielder Wally Moon of the Los Angeles Dodgers, pitcher Joey Jay of Cincinnati, outfielder Jimmy Persall of Washington and first baseman Joe Adcock of Milwaukee.

The Braves have the biggest headache with six players remaining outside the fold—Adcock, pitchers Bob Buhl, Don McMahon, Don Nottebart and Carl Willey and outfielder Len Gabrielson. The New York Mets, Cincinnati Reds and Boston Red Sox are tied for the runner-up spot with five.

FIVE CLUBS IN FOLD

Only five clubs—Houston, Chicago, Pittsburgh in the National League and Cleveland and Kansas City in the AL—have closed their ledgers with all players accounted for. There are 23 National League unsigned and 22 American League.

Signing Thursday besides Minoso, Pinson and Kaline were Braves' pitchers Lew Burdette and Cecil Butler, Mets' infielder Felix Mantilla, second baseman Marv Breeding of Baltimore and pitcher Hector Maestri of Washington.

But as far as AAU chief Dan Ferris is concerned, Delany still is in the race. "He hasn't said anything to me about scratching," said Ferris.

Beatty said he was sorry to hear about Delany's plight. "I was looking forward to meet-

SQUIRE FROSH TAKES FINAL

The Delone Catholic High School Freshman cagers ended a successful season Thursday afternoon by defeating York Catholic 37-45 on the latter's floor.

It was the seventh victory against four losses for the Squires. The game was comparatively close until the final frame when Delone outscored its opponent 14-8.

P. Staub led the winners with 19 points while York was led by Eisenhower with 13.

Light Court Card Tonight

Tonight marks the windup of the Adams-Franklin Basketball League campaign for 1962 as four games will be played to complete the regular season schedule.

The games include Littlestown at Bermudian, Fannett-Metal at New Oxford, Green-castle at Quincy, and St. Thomas at James Buchanan.

Scotland's floor will be the site Monday evening at 8 o'clock for the league's championship game between Bermudian Springs, Adams Division titlist, and Greencastle, Franklin champs.

Delone has two important dates this weekend. Tonight the Squires tangle with Han-over on the Nighthawks' floor and on Sunday afternoon meet Bishop McDevitt in a Central Penn Catholic League game at McSherrystown. The preliminary Sunday will start at 1:30. McDevitt won the league first half title while Delone is leading the second half race with a 3-0 mark.

JIM BEATTY TO KEEP STRATEGY IN MILE EVENT

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Beatty, America's first sub-four-minute indoor mile, said today he's following the same strategy whether Ron Delany shows up for the mile run in the National AAU championships Saturday night or not.

"It won't change my strategy one bit," said Beatty, who ran a 3:58.9 mile in the Los Angeles Times meet two weeks ago. "I can't say how fast I'll go, but it will be a good performance. I always try to make a good race of it."

DELANY INJURED

Delany told the Philadelphia Inquirer Thursday night that he was scratching from the mile because of an injured Achilles tendon on his left foot. He said it had been bothering him for nine days and when he tried it in a workout Thursday, the heel pained.

But as far as AAU chief Dan Ferris is concerned, Delany still is in the race. "He hasn't said anything to me about scratching," said Ferris.

Beatty said he was sorry to hear about Delany's plight. "I was looking forward to meet-

DISPLAY BEST HORSES IN 2 TOP HANDICAPS

By ORLO ROBERTSON

Associated Press Sports Writer

Horses who figure to dominate the handicap division this year will be on display Saturday in the turf's two top races. Four-and-Twenty heads a field of 13 in the Santa Anita Handicap and Carry Back is the name performer in the Widener Handicap at Hialeah Park.

Both are $100,000-added events at 1 1/4 miles.

The Santa Anita 'Cap shapes up as Four-and-Twenty versus the field. The Alberta Ranches' 4-year-old son of Blue Prince is the even-money favorite of victories over most of the same horses in the Santa Anita Maturity, San Carlos Handicap and San Fernando Stakes. He'll pack top weight of 129 pounds with Johnny Longden in the saddle and gives as much as 20 pounds to his rivals.

13 STARTERS

If Four-and-Twenty is offered any serious competition it is expected to come from the Tex Ellisworth-Lynn Boice entry of Prove It, Olden Times and Physician. Prove It, winner of the event last year, will be ridden by Willie Shoemaker and packs second high weight of 126 pounds.

With 13 starters, the Santa Anita 'Cap will be worth $145,000 with the winner guaranteed $100,000.

By contrast with Four-and-Twenty, Carry Back figures to face much more formidable opposition in the Widener. Mrs. Katherine Price's hard-hitting colt was the 1961 three-year-old champion but has only two seconds back of intentionally to show for his efforts as a 4-year-old.

CARRY BACK CHOICE

Intentionally, however, has been retired with the result Carry Back shapes up as the choice over 10 or 11 rivals. He picks up the top weight of 127 pounds.

Arrayed against Carry Back will be the inconsistent but fleet Hitting Away from Ogden Phipps' stable; Calumet Farm's Yorky, last year's winner, and stablemate Beau Prince, and perhaps Jacob Sher's Sherlock, who has done little since winning the Belmont Stakes last summer.

With 12 starters, the Widener will gross $133,000 with close to $80,000 going to the winner.

ing him and had high hopes of breaking that 40 race (34 at the mile) streak of his," said the 27-year-old Los Angeles Track Club speedboy.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

LAUDS JERRY WEST AS BEST IN BACK COURT

By GEORGE ESPER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The West Coast critics were on Fred Schaus.

This was the 1960-1961 National Basketball Association season and the second-guessers were saying that Schaus, head coach of the Los Angeles Lakers, didn't play his former star at West Virginia, Jerry West, enough early in the season.

But Schaus apparently knew what he was doing. He brought West along and developed him into one of the most promising guards in the NBA.

Today, the Lakers, only one game away from clinching their first Western division title since moving to the coast, are playing better than .500 ball. And that's something considering they don't have the full services of Elgin Baylor, who is in the Army.

CARRIED LOAD

"West has carried a great deal of the load," Schaus said after his Lakers defeated New York 118-116 Thursday night with the 6-3 star leading the scoring with 36 points.

"I was criticized on the coast last year that I didn't play Jerry enough early in the year," Schaus recalled. "He played a lot late in the year and came into his own. We had a real good club the last third of the season."

"If I had it to over I'd do the same thing. Some real fine college players come into the pro league and they're thrown in the lineup and expected to produce in a tough league. They become discouraged."

Littlestown's 98th Birthday To Be Marked At C.C. Dinner Feb. 28; Anniversary Today

The 98th anniversary of the incorporation of Littlestown as a borough will be observed at the annual dinner meeting of the Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. in the Starlite Room, Dutcher's Restaurant. A roast turkey meal will be served family style.

The guest speaker will be Ralph E. Peters, 38, Camp Hill, a past national vice president of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce, who also served as state president of the Pennsylvania Jaycees during 1955-56. He is administrative vice president and secretary treasurer of the Berger Companies. During his Jaycee career, Mr. Peters held several local offices and state chairmanships, was a regional vice president, state vice president and president.

Some of his past activities, other than with Jaycees have included: Director, Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce; chairman, Division United Fund Drive, Harrisburg; past president Grace Lutheran Church Men's Organization and served as both a captain and major of teams for local Chamber of Commerce membership drives. Presently, he is active in civic affairs. He served during World War II and was recalled to active duty during the Korean Conflict. Mr. Peters was recipient of the Distinguished Service Award in 1958 for his outstanding community services in the Greater Harrisburg Area. He and his wife and three children reside in Camp Hill.

TODAY IS ANNIVERSARY

The local Chamber is currently conducting a membership drive which will culminate with the dinner. The teams for the drive include: Carroll E. Arter, chairman, Earl L. Stiles, Donald L. Bedford, Richard W. Staley, P. Emory Weaver, Dr. Richard N. Greenholt, Wilmer Dutcher, Theron W. Spangler, Robert L. Crouse and Clinton Wintrobe. The other team comprises J. Arthur Boyd, chairman, Harry D. Feuser, Charles E. Ritter, Dr. Leonard L. Potter, Edward H. Leister, Nevaeh A. Crouse, Warren C. Harner, Albert M. Houston, Paul M. Bowman and Chester S. Byers.

The Chamber of Commerce directors will meet at 2 p.m. on Tuesday in the directors' room of the Littlestown National Bank.

Today is the 98th anniversary of Littlestown's incorporation as a borough. "The place where agriculture and industry meet." The town was laid out by Peter Little and the original residents were said to have been German Lutheran. The place was first called Petersburg and later, for its founder, Little's Town.

20 FACTORIES

Information received from the Chamber of Commerce reveals that modern Littlestown has a population of 2,741, according to the 1960 census. The community is governed by a mayor, Earl L. Stiles, and six councilmen. Lewis H. Fox is president of the borough council. Municipal elections are held every two years at which time three councilmen are elected. One of the features that contributes so much to the welfare of Littlestown is one of the most modern sewage systems in this country, a project which was completed in 1947.

At present there are over 20 manufacturing establishments; these factories employ over 1,400 people and the combined weekly payroll is better than $65,000. There are numerous social, civic and fraternal organizations. A great number of business establishments are found here; practically all nationally advertised

PARISH WOMEN VOTE $500 TO RENEWAL FUND

The St. Aloysius Parish Council of Catholic Women voted at their monthly meeting on Wednesday evening in the all purpose room of the parochial school to pay $500 of their $2,500 pledge payment to the Parish Plant Renewal program, making a total of more than $1,500 paid to date. An additional contribution of $10 to the Special Diocesan Activities fund was also voted, and $5 to the Heart fund.

Mrs. Z. W. Sanders, president, was in charge of the meeting which opened with Prayer to Our Lady of Good Counsel, led by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. John E. Metz. Reports were heard from Mrs. Bernard Kuhns and Mrs. P. K. Hymiller. Mrs. Bernard M. Selby, vice president, read the message of the national president, which noted that the Holy Father has granted a plenary indulgence which may be gained each day by individuals who offer their works for the day to God, with the usual conditions. A letter from Miss Anna Rehm, diocesan president, was read by Mrs. Sanders, and this called attention to Catholic Press Month. The month was observed by the council on Wednesday night with a book display by the libraries and literature chairman, Mrs. Thomas G. French. The guest package, contributed by Mrs. Paul E. Altoff and received by Mrs. Z. W. Sanders, was a book, also in observance of Catholic Press Month.

DAY OF RECOLLECTION

It was announced that the annual Day of Reflection under Conewago Deanery sponsorship will be held on Sunday, March 18, at St. Joseph's Academy, McSherrystown, beginning with mass at 9 a.m. and concluding with Holy Hour at 3:30 p.m. A Jesuit priest will be in charge of the message for the day. Reservations should be made with the president by March 10. The general intention of the day will be the deanery's 25th anniversary project, the "Prayer Corps" to make reparation for the sins of communism and to make preparations to face the enemy. "Prayer Corps" information as adopted at the deanery meeting

MODERN SCHOOLS

The six churches of town include five Protestant and one Catholic. There is a community playground for the children and youth, maintained by the school district. Memorial Field is an addition to promote and facilitate athletic events.

The first schools in Littlestown were one-room log structures. The present joint school system was organized in 1948 and includes the Rolling Acres Elementary School, for Grades one through four; Maple Avenue school, for Grades five and six; the new Littlestown High School, dedicated in September, 1961, for the students from Grades Seven through Twelve, and the enrollment now totals over 1,000. The St. Aloysius congregation also maintains a parochial school and the building with recent renovations was dedicated in 1926.

There has been extensive residential building during the last few years and additions have been constructed to many of the factories.

Scouts See Film On "Order Of Arrow"

A film on "The Order of the Arrow" was shown at the weekly meeting of Boy Scout Troop 84 on Wednesday in the Community Center. Members of the troop will be selected by vote of the membership at next Wednesday's meeting, which is necessary to make them eligible for joining the Order. The Scoutmaster discussed with the troop the possibility of joining in an excursion trip to Philadelphia by train, on Saturday, March 24. Should the local Scouts show sufficient interest, they will go to Lancaster to board the train. The trip will cover a tour of Franklin Institute and its planetarium and other places of interest. Scouts should discuss the idea with their parents and, if interested, should give their names to the Scoutmaster at next week's meeting. The cost will be $5.15.

Tenderfoot classes were conducted by the Scoutmaster and Larry Altoff; second class by Assistant Scoutmaster Paul E. Renner and Robert Altoff and first class by Luther D. Snyder.

"IT PAYS TO ALWAYS SHOP IN LITTLESTOWN"

in Bonneville in January was distributed to members.

Women were invited by the pastor to volunteer their help for the parish project for Fasnacht Day. Order forms have been distributed to all parishioners for doughnuts or for crullers, both of which will be available throughout the day on March 5 and March 6. It is requested that order forms be returned to the rectory by March 1. Orders may be called for or they will be delivered but the preference should be stated on the order. Those who wish to assist with the project are to give their names to the pastor.

NOMINATE IN MARCH

A thank you note was read by the secretary from Michael Chestnut, the units adopted boy at Paradise School. Mrs. Sanders appointed the following nominating committee to select a slate of officers for presentation at the March 21 meeting. Mrs. Ivan Rickrode, Mrs. Thomas Staveland and Mrs. Leo Riley. A newly purchased 50-star flag was on display for the first time.

Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the business by Mrs. Albert Ozminski, Mrs. Richard Schuchart and daughter, Patricia, after which final preparation for the card party last evening, were completed.

The committee for the March 21 meeting will include Miss A. Marie Budde, chairman, Miss Diane Redding, Mrs. George Peart, Mrs. Clarence Sheely, Mrs. Merle Little, Mrs. William Mehring, Mrs. George Wherley, Mrs. Joseph Shrader and Mrs. Noah C. Snyder. At that time, Miss Evelyn C. Altoff will show the colored slide pictures which she took on a trip to Europe during the summer, and guest night will be observed.

Most Pressing Need Is Peace Says Minister

By REV. DR. N. S. WOLF
Retired Clergyman
THINKING ABOUT WORLD PEACE

Text: Men cry "Peace, peace, when there is no peace." Jeremiah 6:14.

There can be no doubt but that the consensus of people as to the world's most pressing need is peace. The agencies seeking it range from the prayers of all the churches through many secular organizations to the blatant protestations of its bitterest foes. The goal of the quest is a warless world.

Beyond contradiction war is society's most malignant affliction. But its roots ramify throughout the fabric of society so that its cure must have regard for man's total wretchedness and for the way in which God grants peace.

The quest for peace calls for sober and discriminating thinking. There is a real danger, if not indeed a fact, that it may be grounded in sentiments which are void of a realistic appraisal of the subtlety of this world's sinning and in an unwarranted presumption akin to wishful thinking which may easily lead to spiritual disillusionment or even to despair.

TWO EXAMPLES

Two examples, one a prayer for peace, the other a peace slogan, provide a directive for our thinking. The first pictures a lovely child with folded hands and uplifted countenance as though she were looking into the face of God, who offers this prayer: "Grant us peace, Thy most precious gift, O Lord," with this subtext: "Let us pray that peace be granted to the whole world." The slogan runs thus: "A World at Peace through a World at Prayer." The points of reference obviously are to a warless world. But when they are critically, though kindly, considered some confusing thoughts arise.

First: It is as true of "this world" now as when Jeremiah raised his heartbroken lamentation — "Men cry 'peace, peace' when there is no peace," or even the more profound declaration of Jesus, "This is 'this world's' condemnation, that men love darkness rather than light." Furthermore a moment's reflection on the world's history and on contemporary conditions will not warrant the hope for a "this world" paradise. Nor do the teachings of Jesus predict it, but rather the contrary. Not until the promised "New Heaven and New Earth," the abode of righteousness, is come will peace prevail.

SOME CONDITIONS

Second: It should be remembered, when God is invoked to "grant His most perfect gift of peace," that such a boon is promised only on unalterable conditions, laid down by the God of all peace. That these demands will ever be honored, by the individual in all possible situations, or by mankind in the aggregate, seems most unlikely. A peaceful world demands more than international peace pacts and peace corps.

Third: Can it be that we have forgotten or do not understand a fact of sublime significance, and it is an accusing fact if forgotten or not understood—that what we so desperately need and seek after is available to us as freely as the air we breathe? God has showered on His earth-born children the "peace which passeth all understanding." See how He has unfurled His banner! By prophetic insight Isaiah was given, on behalf of his people, to see the far-off event when a Child will be born whose name will be "The Prince of Peace." This prophecy was fulfilled when the Child of the Virgin was born. This was "the good news for all peoples," the announcing angel declared, and the Child's mission was unfolded by the host of angels, declaring that God's peace for "this world" is He that is born; and that perennial fountain of "good will among men" should flow from Him. And by way of fullest confirmation of such facts there came a VOICE, on behalf of his people, to see Holy Mount," declaring — "This is my Beloved Son in Whom I am well pleased, hear ye him." WORDS FROM CALVARY During His ensuing ministry, again and again, for those for whom it was intended, He gave the benediction of peace, until, finally, on that dark, midnight journey to Gethsemane and to Calvary He said to those with Him, and through them to all succeeding ages, "Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you," and He sealed this peace for "this world" in His body and His blood.

How then, it must be asked, can God respond to us when we ask that "Peace, His most precious gift" be granted when He has made the fulness thereof freely available? He will not regard wishful thinking nor overweening sentiment, nor will He bestow this benediction arbitrarily. In all soberness of Christian insight, when we pray, let us humbly defer to the judgment which the Lord, the Righteous Judge, has pronounced against "this world": "Now is the judgment of this world," "it stands convicted of sin and is worthy of judgment."

Though "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" shall ride roughshod to the end of time, who are disciples of the Prince of Peace will never cease to pray and labor for the extension of His kingdom until He shall usher it in in all its glory, always on guard and eager "to pluck firebrands from the burning." We will always be numbered in the company of those who, with Jeremiah, keep the plea reverberating throughout "this world": "O earth, earth, hear the Word of the Lord."

THE LION'S SHARE

The lion that can roar the loudest and bite the hardest usually gets what he wants.

That's the way it is in the animal kingdom, and sometimes the system creeps into man's world too!

Most of us have too much RELIGIOUS AWARENESS to believe that such a system is the best one. We would rather live in a world in which kindness and peace and unselfishness were the rule.

Our Churches can help us build such a world. They can turn our religious awareness into SPIRITUAL GROWTH.

On Sunday morning, the man in the armchair knows just as well as the man in the pew what is wrong with the world. But the man in the pew will be busy doing something about it!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Plans To Stop Recession May Be Sufficient

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's invitation for congressional critics of his anti-recession program to come up with one of their own prompted a Republican proposal Thursday.

Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said that while he is not convinced present economic safeguards are insufficient, he thinks Congress might set up an advance public works program it could order into operation in a recession.

Dirksen said that on the basis they were submitted, he is opposed to Kennedy's requests for standby authority to cut taxes and to trigger a $2 billion public works program if the economy turns sour.

MAY BE SUFFICIENT

"Maybe the safeguards we already have are sufficient to meet such a crisis," Dirksen said in an interview. "If they are not, then perhaps Congress should set up in advance a public works program of meritorious projects that it could order started in such a situation."

"The members of Congress are specially sensitive to conditions in their states and districts. They would know if and when such a program would be needed."

Kennedy told his news conference Wednesday that no one who looks at the four recessions since 1949 can say that nothing needs to be done toward combating future downturns.

Sen. Francis Case, R-S.D., said in a separate interview he doesn't believe Kennedy's public works program can be made workable. He said it "smacks very much

Release Suspect In Yank's Murder

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Miss Elizabeth Thring, 22, American friend of a slain U.S. assistant military attaché, took a lie detector test Thursday during interrogations.

Investigations so far have tended to clear Miss Thring of any direct involvement in the killing of Lt. Col. Huie D. Stogner last Wednesday.

The blonde Washington girl is staying with American friends. She was released Wednesday from court custody.

Miss Thring was alone with Stogner when he was shot to death in his home. He has a wife and six children in El Paso, Tex.

Though a number of embassy personnel and friends of Stogner have been questioned no charges have been made.

Miss Thring's account given to police said Stogner was shot by someone outside the house.

BONN, Germany (AP)—Chancellor Konrad Adenauer insisted Thursday, after unfavorable reaction from President Kennedy, that he had never suggested an East-West foreign ministers conference on the Berlin crisis, the Foreign Ministry reported.

A spokesman said the 86-year-old chancellor took the position that it was only a Western foreign ministers conference he had spoken of and the trouble in Washington resulted from distorted news reports.

Sen. Homer Capehart, D-Ind., said Republicans will be ready with some sound, sane, practical proposals when the President's proposals come before committee.

CARRIER TO ALERT PUBLIC TOP.O. WAGES

CUYAHOGA FALLS, Ohio (AP)

A—31-year-old letter carrier here is hiking to Washington, D.C., to alert the public to the aims of postal employees in seeking a wage increase.

Ed Kline, who walks 12 miles daily on his job in this suburban Akron community, says he hopes to average nearly 35 miles a day on his 10-day trek to the nation's capital, site of a national pay rally for postal employees March 5.

"I decided to walk to better alert the public to our aims," he said. "Besides, I enjoy walking."

He explained that the weather was another reason he was walking instead of riding.

"I want to let people know we're out in all kinds of it," he said.

He left the post office here shortly after 8 a.m. Thursday and was accompanied to the city limits by 40 fellow letter carriers and about a dozen wives of carriers.

HAS LITTLE CLOTHING

Kline is carrying only enough cash—donated by other carriers—to buy meals. He plans to seek free lodging from other postal employees along the 325-mile route. His only provisions are an extra change of clothing and an extra pair of shoes.

"I decided to walk to better alert the public to our aims," he said. "Besides, I enjoy walking."

He explained that the weather was another reason he was walking instead of riding.

"I want to let people know we're out in all kinds of it," he said.

JOHN GLENN IS SHOWERED WITH HONORS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A joyful and appreciative nation has gone into orbit over astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. Cities and towns from coast to coast are honoring him in some way or another.

The Marine lieutenant colonel will get New York City's traditional ticker tape parade, along with fellow astronauts Alan B. Shepard Jr. and Virgil I. Grissom. Among communities naming Glenn as honorary citizen are Ottawa, Ill., and Quincy, Mass.

At Larkspur, Calif., they'll name a 4,200-acre park for him. Ohio Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has proclaimed February 20 John H. Glenn Day in the state, and says he will ask the legislature to make the observance an annual affair.

OTHER TRIBUTES

Up New England way, it's Glenn - Randolph, Vt. Auburn, Maine, renamed a street for him. At Tallahassee, Fla., Gov. Faris Bryant has designated today

Lakers Seek To Win Loop Title

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Before the weekend is over, the Lakers should nail their first Western Division title in the National Basketball Association since their move to Los Angeles. Los Angeles meets the hapless Chicago Packers in Louisville tonight, and then goes into a Saturday afternoon date with Cincinnati—needing just one victory to put away the title.

The Lakers rallied for a 118-116 victory over New York at Philadelphia Thursday night, clinching at least a tie for first place in the West. They hold a 10½-game lead over second place Cincinnati.

In the second game at Philadelphia, the Warriors whipped the Lakers 139-121 as Wilt Chamberlain scored 61 points. At Providence, Bob Cousy led Boston's Eastern Division leaders to a 134-106 rout of Syracuse as Project Mercury Day in the state where Glenn took off on his historic flight. Bryant called upon Floridians to display the American flag and rededicate themselves to American ideals. The Tampa, Fla., City Council has changed Franklin street to Glenn street for one week.

In Maplewood, a suburb of St. Paul, Minn., a school scheduled for completion in the fall will be named Glenn High.

INVITED TO FAIR

The Chamber of Commerce of Liberal, Kan., has invited Glenn to preside at its annual Pancake Day, which features women running over a prescribed course flipping pancakes in competition with the women of Olney, England.

Washington state Gov. Albert D. Rosellini has invited Glenn to appear with fellow astronauts in May at the World's Fair, Seattle, in conjunction with a conference on peaceful uses of outer space.

Glenn's hometown of New Concord, Ohio, doesn't know exactly when he is returning, but it's going to be one grand, bang-up affair when he does.

CBS REPORTS' INCONCLUSIVE IN ITS RESULT

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP-TV-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — "CBS Reports" in its 60 minute look at the growing conservative movement in this country, Thursday night handled a hot, controversial subject with kid gloves, and the result, unfortunately, was a bland, inconclusive program.

It concentrated on some of the well publicized organizations and individuals included in the phrase "Right-wing." Robert Welch of the John Birch Society was shown angrily refusing to be interviewed. A group of Missouri "Minutemen" were seen on a practice guerrilla patrol, looking for Soviet boats on the Mississippi River. Dr. Fred Schwarz of the Christian Anti-Communist Crusade was pictured lecturing on the dangers of communism and selling his literature to an audience of old folks.

There were bits of speeches and the boards.

The mishap overshadowed Pittsburgh's equalling the league record for the most consecutive defeats in one season—15. The Hornets were beaten by the Springfield Indians 11-4. Buffalo beat Cleveland 5-3 in the other scheduled game.

Kozak had just returned to the Americans from Toronto of the National League, where he had played 12 games with the Leafs. He had been out of hockey last season, studying for the priesthood.

Hockey Player's Skull Fractured

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Rookie Les Kozak of the Rochester Americans suffered a fractured skull in an American Hockey League game against Providence Wednesday night and underwent immediate surgery.

A spokesman at Roger Williams Hospital in Providence, R.I. said the young leftwinger received a depressed fracture on the right side of his skull in the game that ended in an overtime tie 3-3. He was injured when checked against

Majors Stun Hopes Of Saints' Drive

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Chicago Majors drove another nail into the hopes the San Francisco Giants have of winning the Western Division second half title in the American Basketball League.

It happened Thursday night at San Francisco as the Majors, down by 33-24 at the end of the first quarter, rallied to win 118-102. Instead of picking up ground on the first place Kansas City Steers, the second place Saints fell five games behind. It was the only game scheduled.

Majors Stun Hopes Of Saints' Drive

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Chicago Majors drove another nail into the hopes the San Francisco Giants have of winning the Western Division second half title in the American Basketball League.

It happened Thursday night at San Francisco as the Majors, down by 33-24 at the end of the first quarter, rallied to win 118-102. Instead of picking up ground on the first place Kansas City Steers, the second place Saints fell five games behind. It was the only game scheduled.

LAYS WREATH AT "WALL" FOR RED VICTIMS

By CARL HARTMAN

BERLIN (AP)—Robert F. Kennedy laid a wreath "to the victims of Communist tyranny" at the Red Wall dividing Berlin today and received some cautious waves from East Berliners beyond the barricade.

East Berliners could be seen peeking from behind curtains as the U.S. attorney general's motorcade drove up to the wall at Bernauerstrasse. Apartment houses along the East side there have been boarded up and evacuated. But houses lying a little back from the wall are still occupied and from several of their windows appeared hands, fluttering briefly before being quickly withdrawn.

THOUSANDS CHEER

Thousands of West Berliners had gathered on their side of the barricade to cheer the attorney general, some shouting "Away with the wall!" But the crowd fell silent as Kennedy laid a wreath on a wooden cross on the sidewalk commemorating an elderly woman who was killed when she jumped from her window to the West last August.

The ceremony took place a few hours after American troops rushed through the streets of West Berlin in a dramatic demonstration of Kennedy's pledge that the United States would defend West Berlin against Communist attack as it would New York or Chicago.

Kennedy was out early today for his second look at the Red wall he has denounced as a medieval instrument of torture.

13 CARS AND 5 TRUCKS PILEUP IN SNOW STORM

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A cold wave swept into the northern Rockies Thursday, bringing stiff northerly winds, snow and near-bizzard conditions in some areas.

However, the storm was losing much of its punch as it moved southward. It was expected to move out of Wyoming today, leaving bitterly cold temperatures. The temperature dropped to 5 below at Casper, Wyo.

The Weather Bureau forecast strong winds with blowing, drifting snow for western Nebraska, eastern Wyoming and eastern Colorado for today.

The storm caused a pile-up of 13 cars and five semi-trailer trucks on a slippery highway east of Hanna, Wyo., injuring nine persons none critically.

CUT VISIBILITY

Three to four inches of snow fell at Casper and five inches was reported in Rawlins. The winds caused considerable drifting and reduced visibility.

In Montana, the storm left drifted roads and near zero weather. Wet weather, in the form of rain or snow, covered broad sections in other parts of the nation while fog shrouded areas in the East from northern Virginia to southern New England.

Strong northerly winds carried snow from the blizzard belt into the central Plains while light snow fell in the northern Plains. More snow also hit areas in the Great Lakes region and the north Atlantic Coast states.

DISRUPT FLIGHTS

The fog in the East disrupted plane flights at major airports today and Thursday. At least 91 domestic flights, inbound and outbound, were canceled at New York's Idlewild Airport, Andrews Air Force Base in Maryland was closed and the National Airport in Washington canceled landings.

Rookie Officer Kills Fugitive

READING, Pa. (AP)—A rookie policeman today shot and killed a man who broke from his grasp and fled after being arrested on suspicion of burglary.

Robert E. Reppert, 25, with a police record going back to 1956, was brought down a block from City Hall in the heart of the city.

As told by the authorities, Frederick Lubas, a member of the force for about three months, detected Reppert prowling behind stores on Penn Street, Reading's main thoroughfare, with burglary tools in his possession. After going him into custody, after going along quietly for a half block or so, Reppert broke loose and bolted, Lubas firing when the fugitive wouldn't stop.

STARTED WAR TO TAKE MOVIE

BINGHAMTON, N.Y. (AP)—A Protestant missionary has renewed reports that warfare among native tribes in Dutch New Guinea was encouraged by a Harvard expedition, of which Michael Rockefeller was a member, so that films could be made of the fighting.

Harvard officials called it a baseless charge and said that the Dutch government had investigated rumors started by missionaries and found them to be without foundation.

UNPAID MEMBER

A spokesman for Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Michael's father, said the youth was attached to the expedition as an unpaid art collector and did not have photographic equipment.

The Protestant missionary, the Rev. H. M. Lake, 36, on furlough until July from the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church in New Guinea, said Thursday, however, that he could speak with authority because some natives from the area in which he worked took part in the battles.

Michael Rockefeller, 23, was lost last November when a boat in which he was riding capsized off the south coast of New Guinea in what were described as shark-infested waters.

He had stayed in New Guinea to collect native art after the expedition left.

LOCAL CATTLE BRING $2,550

HARRISBURG (AP)—The grand champion bull, shown by Moles Hill Farm, Sharon, Conn., brought top price of $3,000 Thursday at the Eastern Angus Association futurity show and sale at the State Farm Show Building.

The animal was purchased by White Hill Farm, Gloucester, Va. The sale total for 95 head of breeding stock was $59,555. The 17 futurity bulls averaged $690 and the four open class bulls averaged $590. The average for the 52 futurity females was $670 and for the 22 open class females $493. All averages include the champions.

Prices paid for the other show champions:

The Eisenhower farm, Gettysburg, owned by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, received a total of $2,550 for three Angus females. The top animal in the trio brought $1,000 from Meadow Lane Farm, North Salem, N.Y. Another brought $850 from Magee Farm, Bloomsburg, Pa., and the third was sold to Elynn Farm, York, Pa., for $700.

Futurity grand champion female shown by Pennsylvania State University, $2,100, by Meadow Lane Farm, North Salem, N.Y.

CITIZENS TO PUSH PLAN FOR SCHOOL HELP

NEW YORK (AP)—A citizens group seeking federal aid for parochial and other private schools may expand its political activities in view of the results of the special congressional election here Tuesday.

The Republican candidate, a Roman Catholic who favors federal aid to parochial schools, did well in a normally Democratic district in Queens, whose population is 40 per cent Catholic.

Among supporters of the GOP candidate, Thomas F. Galvin, was the Citizens for Educational Freedom.

Dr. Mark Murphy, chairman of the group's Brooklyn-Queens chapter, said his group worked for Galvin without consultation or collaboration with him.

SEEK SUPPORTERS

Murphy said the group seeks the election of U.S. senators and representatives — regardless of party—who will oppose the exclusion of parochial and other private schools from federal aid. This is in opposition to President Kennedy's stand that federal aid should be limited to public schools.

Vincent Corley, national president of the citizens group and a

Taneytown

MRS. FLORA LEISTER

TANEYTOWN — Mr. and Mrs. William Stiffler, of Washington, D. C., spent the weekend with Mr. Stiffler's mother, Mrs. Crislie Stiffler, and her brother, Sheridan Henry, York St.

Mrs. Adela Buchm, of Olney, is spending several weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Oliver C. Cashell, R. 2.

A large number of farmers from Taneytown and vicinity will attend the annual meeting of the MCMP, Maryland Cooperative Milk Producers, at the Lord Baltimore Hotel, Baltimore, Saturday. The meeting starts at 10 a.m. with luncheon at 12:30. The speaker will be Dr. Ronald C. S. Young, who appears on the program through the courtesy of General Motors Corporation.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell Royer.

St. Louis, Mo., insurance man, said the national organization will concentrate its political efforts in areas where it believes it can be most effective. He said the organization, with headquarters in St. Louis, has local chapters in 17 states.

On the basis of unofficial and incomplete returns—which will be rechecked next Monday—Galvin came to within 193 votes of defeating Benjamin S. Rosenthal, who had the Democratic nomination and also the nomination of the Liberal party.

RFK FLIES AIR CORRIDOR TO WEST BERLIN

BERLIN (AP)—U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy flew without hindrance along the 195-mile air corridor to West Berlin Thursday and pledged anew American determination to stand by this isolated city.

The U.S. Air Force plane carrying Kennedy, his wife Ethel, and their party of about 15 landed in a snowstorm.

Thousands of Berliners lined the streets despite the weather, to cheer the visitors on their ride to City Hall. The route included a detour past the Communist wall. West Berlin Mayor Willy Brandt had urged the citizens to show their attachment to the United States by giving a rousing welcome to the brother of the President.

BROTHERS TO MEET

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, President Kennedy's personal representative here; the American commandant, Maj. Gen. Albert Watson II, and the mayor were on hand at the airport.

Edward M. Kennedy, youngest brother of the President, also was due in the city to celebrate his 30th birthday and hold a 24-hour reunion with Robert, Edward, who also is making a personal tour, was flying from Paris by commercial plane.

Robert is nearing the end of a month-long tour which he said was to meet people and explain American policies.

As the Kennedy's plane flew the 20-mile wide corridor from Frankfurt, informed sources at the Berlin air safety center said the Soviet representative there had not repeated his attempts to reserve air space in the airlines for Soviet planes.

CORRIDOR CRISIS

The source said the Soviets gave advance notice of specific Soviet flights in the northern corridor to Hamburg, but they did not interfere with Western flights.

A crisis arose in the corridors two weeks ago when the Soviets announced at the air safety center, the only four-power agency still functioning in Berlin, that they were wanted to reserve blocks of space in some of the corridors for Soviet military flights.

Western controllers at the center denied the request and held to the rules that each flight must be registered individually.

67 CITIZENS LAUD DILWORTH

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Richardson Dilworth is praised as the best mayor in the city's history in a telegram signed by 67 outstanding citizens and sent to Gov. Lawrence Wednesday.

The signers rose to Dilworth's defense because of allegations by City Controller Alexander Hemphill.

Hemphill, writing Lawrence the first of the week, said Dilworth had repeatedly tried "quietly to bury the problem" of last year's payola scandals.

The message from the 67 said Hemphill's statements were politically motivated. It asserted:

"Mr. Dilworth has been a completely honest and upright mayor and the most effective, inspiring mayor this city has ever had."

The signers include physicians, lawyers, architects, businessmen and politicians.

WEST GERMANY REUNITED THRU FREE VOTING

BONN, Germany (AP)—West Germany has agreed—in replying to a Soviet memorandum suggesting bilateral negotiations on Berlin and Germany—that an improvement in relations between the two countries should be sought through a step-by-step method.

But the Bonn government's answering memorandum, delivered in Moscow by Ambassador Hans Kroll, insisted relations could never be fully normalized until the Soviet Union allows East and West Germany to be reunified through free elections.

The Soviet memorandum of Dec. 27 made a plea for a new understanding between what it called "the two greatest countries of Europe" and proposed bilateral negotiations to that end on the Berlin and German problems.

TWO REPORTS ARE BIG BOOM TO ECONOMY

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's economy is stronger than you thought a few weeks back—this on the say-so of the Commerce Department.

And the yen to buy a new car will be stronger this spring than usual—this on the authority of a Federal Reserve Board survey.

The reassuring figures on the nation's total output, combined with the preview of consumer buying intentions in a significant field, could make for a happy spring, once winter's snows release their grip.

The two reports might even be related. The sharp rise in output with its accompanying enrichment of personal incomes could be a big reason more Americans say they plan to buy a new car this spring.

PREDICT RISE

And if the gross national product (GNP)—the dollar value of all goods and services produced—goes on rising in the first half of 1962 as the Commerce Department likes to think it will, consumer confidence could pick up strength fast. It often has grown sharply in the past once a gain gets under way.

The Commerce Department

couched in friendly terms, offered the hope of some form of German reunification if Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government would deal with the Communist regime of East Germany.

The answer turned down any such negotiations so long as the policies of Communist leader Walter Ulbricht are continued. This and other references to East Germany seemed to indicate Adenauer's government would be more willing to heed the Soviet memorandum if an improvement in conditions were effected in the East German satellite.

Bob Goalby finished 23 under par when he won the 1961 St. Petersburg Open. It was the best PGA showing of the year.

New Satellite Is Fired Into Orbit

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—The U.S. Air Force has a new satellite in orbit—one it doesn't want to talk about.

The satellite was launched, in secrecy, from this big missile base Wednesday.

The Air Force said only it was an Agena B rocket, boosted aloft by an Atlas missile and the launching was successful.

Experts theorized it was a test vehicle for the sky-spy Samos and Midas satellites, which are designed to keep Soviet missile bases under surveillance. The Soviet Union has protested the launching of military satellites, terming them acts of aggression.

WORKER IS KILLED

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A shipyard worker, Stanley D. Jupp Jr., 39, was killed in an accident in nearby Algiers Wednesday.

He was working on an oil rig in drydock at the Todd Shipyard Corp. when a lifeboat fell from its rigging onto his head.

blames the bad weather for much of the leveling off in industrial and trade activities so far this year. It predicts spring will bring a good pickup.

And it has revised upward its figures on how we were doing in the final months of 1961. It now puts the GNP at a record annual rate of $342 billion in the fourth quarter of last year. And that is a hefty $41 billion more than in the first three months of 1961.

For the year as a whole, the GNP set a record at $521 billion, compared with $504.4 billion in 1960.

It will have to expand considerably between now and summer to come up to the Commerce Department's expectations.

But the Federal Reserve Board survey of consumer intentions indicates the economy has a good chance of doing just that.

Bob Goalby finished 23 under par when he won the 1961 St. Petersburg Open. It was the best PGA showing of the year.
